

SUMMER ASSOCIATE PROGRAM 2024

Program Description

Jacobson Lopez is seeking highly motivated rising 2L or 3L students to join our boutique white collar law firm in Washington, D.C., as summer associates. The Summer Associate Program will provide law students with practical experience in various white collar practice areas, including cross-border internal investigations, government investigations, individual representations, anti-money laundering, and corporate compliance. Summer associates will work collaboratively with our attorneys, including senior partners, to assist with legal research, writing, case analysis, and strategic client engagement. Summer associates can expect substantive feedback and mentorship aimed at honing and developing critical legal skills and a foundational understanding of white collar law.

Students selected for the program will be paid a stipend.
